Scripture Reading: Matthew 7:1-5

Speaker: Adam Pogue

We live in a society certainly full of disobedience to God. But, no matter how bad another's sin seems to be, one sin is not worse than another. Sin is sin. To God sin is “lawlessness” (1 John 3:4) and a rebellion against Him (Deuteronomy 9:7; Joshua 1:18). Romans 6:23 tells us “the wages of sin is death.” It does not say the wages of some sins is death. Though our emotions may tell us horrible acts of hatred or sin are worse than our sins, may we “consider the plank in your own eye” so that we may all teach others about Christ and one day receive our own reward!
