Scripture Reading: Ephesians 6:1-4

Speaker: Adam Pogue

Each generation is given an opportunity to leave the next generation better than they found it. Today is a day our nation celebrates fatherhood. It is a day meant for us to show appreciation and honor to our earthly fathers. May I suggest that you not only honor your dad but that you also take this day to remember your own role handed down by God. All parents have a responsibility to leave the legacy of Christ for the next generation. So ask yourself... What Legacy Are You Leaving?
