

Psalm 113

Striplin
Valor

stolen valor

Things do not end well for men who seek to take credit for what God has done in their lives.

3 takeaways from the stories of these two kings:

1. God is responsible for the good that all people enjoy, even those who do not serve Him.
2. God expects for men to give Him credit and is greatly angered when men fail to acknowledge Him or His goodness.
3. We should be in the habit of daily giving thanks for God's goodness.
