

-
- Nehemiah hears of Jerusalem's desolation and seeks to return. (ch.1)
  - Nehemiah goes before the king, returns to Jerusalem, and surveys the situation. (ch.2)
  - Nehemiah and the people begin the work and encounter difficulties. (ch. 3-6)
  - The work is completed. (6:15,16)

NEHEMIAH

CH. 1-6

A 3D rendering of a brick wall. The wall is made of reddish-brown bricks with dark grey mortar. In the foreground, there are several loose bricks scattered on a light grey surface. A white trowel with a wooden handle is lying on the surface. The text is overlaid on the scene in a metallic, 3D font.

HAVING A MIND TO WORK

NEHEMIAH
4:6

HAVING A MIND TO WORK

NEHEMIAH
4:6

- We must understand and believe in the work.
- We must commit to the work.
- We must overcome difficulties to the work.