

Psalm 33:1-5

The God Of

Righteousness & Justice

What is Biblical righteousness?

Hebrew word tsědaqah meaning to have the right relationship between oneself and God and others.

What is Biblical justice?

Hebrew word mishpat meaning retributive justice or the act of upholding those who are vulnerable.

The God Of
Righteousness & Justice

The Scriptures clearly indicate that righteousness and justice are key components of God's character.

"God, give your justice to the king and your righteousness to the king's son. He will judge your people with righteousness and your afflicted ones with justice." (Psalm 72:1,2)

"Clouds and total darkness surround him; righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne." (Psalm 97:2)

"The mighty King loves justice. You have established fairness; you have administered justice and righteousness in Jacob." (Psalm 99:4)

"The Lord executes acts of righteousness and justice for all the oppressed." (Psalm 103:6)

The God Of
Righteousness & Justice

The Scriptures clearly indicate that righteousness and justice are key components of God's character.

"But the Lord of Armies is exalted by his justice, and the holy God shows that he is holy through his righteousness. (Isaiah 5:16)

"The Lord is exalted, for he dwells on high; he has filled Zion with justice and righteousness." (Isaiah 33:5)

"But the one who boasts should boast in this: that he understands and knows me—that I am the Lord, showing faithful love, justice, and righteousness on the earth, for I delight in these things. This is the Lord's declaration." (Jeremiah 9:24)
