2020 Focus

The pride of the world hinders it from repenting of sin because that means admitting wrong doing.

Admitting wrong doing demands recognizing the authority of another person or standard.

Recognizing the authority of another only makes sense when that other person is God, and the world simply does not want to acknowledge God or His authority.

Repentance is the catalyst for the change that takes place when we decide to live for Jesus.

Living with a penitent heart aides us in leaving sin behind.

Our penitent hearts will help us to remain committed to our faiths through not growing hard-hearted & prideful.
